Application Grant for funding received by applicant and paid by Foundation
NBDF National Bleeding Disorder Foundation Conference – September 12-14, 2024
Atlanta, Georgia

The Foundation is offering an opportunity to fund attendance at NBDF for 1 or 2 individuals, or a child and adult, whose lives are connected to the Hemophilia/bleeding disorder community within our service area.

Registration, travel, and hotel expenses for a maximum of $2000 will be reimbursed, from receipts paid prior, by applicant selected to receive grant.

If your attendance at the Conference is funded by the Foundation, you are agreeing to submit a brief summary of your time at the educational event, including insights and information gained. The summary will be distributed to Foundation Board Members and must be submitted by October 1, 2024. You are required to participate fully in the events of the Conference and the activities by NBDF once there. One of the Foundation Board Members will also attend the Conference and help you with any questions or concerns you may have. You are also agreeing to your permission to post your summary and photos on our website, to encourage others to take advantage of a same future opportunity.

Important Dates:

Applicate deadline – August 1, 2024
